[illegible] SETTLEMENT, B. C.—This new settlement situated on the banks of the Fraser, about two miles below the mouth of Harrison River, promises to become an important [illegible]. On the 10th of last month 14 persons went up from this city, chiefly Englishmen who came out on the Sillistria, and pre-empted farms upon which they have been [illegible]. The newly proposed settlement contains from 150,000 to 200,000 acres of land, 5,000 acres of which is valuable prairie, the soil being of prime quality and well calculated to produce splendid crops of all kinds—cereals as well as roots. The remainder of the land is sparsely timbered, offering no great obstacle to its easy and comparatively inexpensive clearance. The wood is principally maple, poplar and cedar. The whole number at present who have become settlers amount to twenty, and in a short time there will be a considerable increase, as several have already intimated their intention of going up immediately from this city for the purpose. The Government have reserved six hundred and forty acres for a town site, and probably ere long there will be many buildings going up on it. Mr Clayton, at the Colonial Secretary's office, Government buildings, will afford any person desiring to pre-empt land in the locality all the necessary information required.—Colonist

FINANCIAL REFORM.—The Troy, New York, American of the 9th of December contains the following:

A memorial to Congress is in circulation among the New York business men proposing a reform in the financial policy of the Government for the purpose of relieving its credit, and equalizing the burthen of expense among the people. It opposes the policy of the Secretary of the Treasury, in the issue of an irredeemable currency, and making short loans. The remedy proposed is to issue bonds ranging from $20 to $5,000 having 20 years to run, at 4 per cent interest; these are to be made a legal tender, by which they may have a par value and circulate as money for all sums above $20. The obligations of the country, it is argued, will then be reduced to two kinds—one being the interest paying bonds, the other being the notes for less than $20, payable on demand in specie, without interest. The memorialists believe that the bonds would be absorbed in sufficient quantity to meet all the needs of Government.

EMPLOYMENT OF NEGRO BATTALIONS.—On the 14th day of March, 1779, General Alexander Hamilton addressed to John Jay, President of Congress, a letter with reference to the employment of negro battalions in the service of the country during the Revolutionary war. In this letter he says:

I foresee that this project will have to combat much opposition from prejudice and self-interest. The contempt we have been taught to entertain for the blacks makes us fancy many things that are founded neither in reason nor experience. An essential part of this plan is to give them their freedom with their swords. This will secure their fidelity, animate their courage, and I believe will have a good influence upon those who remain, by opening a door to their emancipation. This circumstance, I confess, has no small weight in inducing me to wish the success of the project; for the dictates of humanity and true policy equally interest me in favor of this unfortunate class of men.

THE SOUTHERN CHURCH.—The following will be interesting to the religious world:

We learn from the South that Rev. Dr. Palmer is now residing in Columbia, South Carolina, where he is engaged temporarily filling the Professorship in the Theological Seminary, made vacant by the death of Rev. Dr Thornwell. Rev Dr Leyburn, formerly of Philadelphia, is residing at Athens, Georgia, and is there discharging his duties as Secretary of the Committee of Domestic Missions. Rev James McNeill, formerly Secretary of the American Bible Society, has left his post as editor of the North Carolina Presbyterian for a time, and entered the army. Rev. Dr. Dabney, Professor in the Union Theological Seminary, is also in the Southern army, and is acting as an aid to Gen. Jackson. We have seen an order issued by Gen. Jackson, signed "R L Dabney, Assistant Adjutant General."

Things Unconstitutional and Otherwise

When Mr. Lincoln succeeded to the Presidency the first matter of consideration was to pacify the Southern Secessionists, if it could be done short of the sacrifice of the national dignity. Failing in this, it was his duty to retain the forts and arsenals in the South, as strong points and await the uprising of the people. The Secession sympathizers at the North at this time were fearful that any attempt to reinforce the garrisons of the Southern forts would irritate our Southern brethren. As a matter of course the North was never expected to get irritated about anything. Insult [illegible] upon the nation and the Unionists [illegible] with sand and a scrubbing brush and they were expected to bear it all meekly. We did so, and Fort Sumpter was captured and immediately afterwards Norfolk and Harper's Ferry. It now became evident that the South proposed to occupy Washington. The President called for seventy-five thousand [illegible] with no authority from Congress. These were intended for the defense of Washington pending the settlement of existing difficulties. This expedient to save the capital of the country was denounced as unconstitutional. The enterprises of the Confederates became more offensive, and to save the States of Kentucky and Missouri from the hands of the enemy it was necessary to make more extensive preparations. Besides it was designed to defend the Unionists of East Tennessee and Western Virginia. Surely this was only a sacred duty the execution of which should have provoked no man's ire. This required eighty-three thousand additional men. These were called for in an "unconstitutional" manner. During this time the Confederates had collected forces on the frontiers of Kentucky and threatened the peace of that State before any blood was shed; all property of loyalists was confiscated: sixty days were given to loyalists to leave the Confederate States or take the oath of allegiance, and those who left were deprived of property, and those who refused to leave, and would not take the oath of allegiance, were imprisoned.

At this time the Confederates were threatening Washington, with an army of one hundred and twenty thousand men. To give security to the capital, it was determined to try and drive the Confederates south of James river, thus reducing them to the defensive. This advance over the Potomac was denounced as "the coercion of a sovereign State," and was of course unconstitutional. Just before this disastrous "unconstitutional" Bull Run campaign, Gen. Frost had been "unconstitutionally" captured at Camp Jackson, with fifteen hundred men, and Sterling Price had been "unconstitutionally" thrashed on the sacred soil of a sovereign State. This practice of "unconstitutional" thrashings, varied by some rather unpleasant drubbings of our forces, has been kept up ever since, with the loss to the Confederates of a large part of their territories and over a million of their population, which are now under the shadow of the old flag. In carrying out these things many "unconstitutional" things have been done, nearly any one of which having been neglected, would have proven fatal to the national cause. Among those which might have been neglected to advantage, was the arrest of a pea-nut peddler near New Haven and Col. E. J. Kewen of California, and several other equally unimportant personages. All these things have occurred from dressing village tyrants in authority, which they did not appreciate. Fortunately, we have got past that phase in the management of the war.

It is a noticeable fact that those who have from the first been so expert at finding unconstitutional points in Mr. Lincoln's policy have failed to see any such thing in Jeff. Davis'. It will be a good idea in future to let these sympathizers howl, keeping in view the fact that, what pleases them must be a disadvantage to the national cause. If Mr. Lincoln will do this he may rest assured that he will find the weak spots in the enemy's armor. It looks likely that the Confederates will not be pleased with the Emancipation Proclamation. The prospect of having to shoot at their own negroes is making secession an expensive luxury. Of one thing we are quite well assured. The Unionists can stand it as long as they can. Under the civil law it is doubtless "unconstitutional" to emancipate and arm the negroes; under the military law it may be done. This being an extremely uncivil war, the civil law is to be suspended in certain localities until the Confederates are reduced to a proper degree of civility. For this purpose a little less "constitutionality" in dealing with rebels and a little more of it in dealing with Unionists will be acceptable.

Wasco County Scrip.—The county orders of Wasco have been selling at low rates until recently. Now they bring nearly seventy-five cents on the dollar, which we take to be an indication that there is [illegible] the management of county affairs.

Arrival of the Pacific!

LATER FROM THE EAST.

The steamer Pacific arrived at this city last night at [illegible] o'clock, bringing dates from San Francisco and the East to 17th January. We received files of the [illegible] and [illegible] papers by favor of Wells, Fargo & Co. and [illegible]

[illegible]

Late Eastern News

The following is a summary of the latest and most important news received.

Chattanooga, January 11.—The Yankees have advanced [illegible] miles this side of Murfreesboro. [illegible] stealing private property, robbing [illegible] citizens and ruining [illegible].

Nashville, January 11th.—The rebel General Forrest's advance was at Franklin last night, his pickets extending three miles west of that place. He is collecting horses, provisions and conscripts. Four regiments will arrive at [illegible].

Washington, January 13.—The full official report of the capture of Holly Springs (Miss.) shows the ruffianism and barbarity of Van Dorn and his soldiers [illegible]. An attempt was made by them to destroy the general hospital containing over five hundred sick. A lot of ammunition stores was piled in front of the hospital and fired before there was time to remove the sick; the walls were riddled with flying balls and shells. Twenty sick soldiers were struck by the missiles. All of those that could [illegible] sick were forced to [illegible] and fall into line to be marched off by the rebels, who threatened to shoot the medical officers for expostulating. Some were so weak as to be scarcely able to stand, but were forced along under threats of being shot. The rebel officer in command finally consented to stop these brutal proceedings on receiving a certificate signed by every surgeon present that the men were too sick to walk and their removal an impossibility.

New York, January 12th.—The morning papers contain nothing [illegible]

Cairo, January 12th.—A Vicksburg paper states that Banks and [illegible] are coming up the river in large force; also that the rebels received large reinforcements, and that their numbers now inside of the fortifications are a hundred thousand. The failure of the expedition against Vicksburg is attributed to the non-arrival of reinforcements at the proper time.

Kingston, N. C.—The Yankees are making immense preparations for an advance at Morehead City and Newbern. They number fifty thousand men under Foster. They will probably attack Charleston, Wilmington, Goldsboro, and Weldon, simultaneously. It is reported that they are now cooking marching rations.

Cape Race, January 16th.—The Jura from Liverpool on January 1st, and with Londonderry dates to the 2d, has arrived.

At a meeting of the working men of Manchester held Dec. 31st, resolutions supporting the Federal cause were adopted, and an address to President Lincoln was agreed upon. The resolutions expressed high satisfaction at the emancipation proclamation and other measures tending at once to give freedom to slaves and restore peace to America. The address to President Lincoln congratulates him on his humane and righteous policy of emancipation and beseeches him to finish the work effectually.

St. Paul, January 14.—Ex-Governor Ramsey was elected U. S. Senator to-day.

Boston, January 15.—Gov. Andrew in his address at the reception of the California cavalry company yesterday, said that he had received assurances from Washington that the tender of a whole cavalry battalion from California was accepted, and that the battalion will be counted as a part of the Massachusetts contingent.

Washington, January 15.—The Attorney General, in reply to a resolution of the House asking why the Confiscation Act had not been enforced in the District of Columbia, enclosed a letter from the District Attorney stating that in all cases of property that had been seized reported to him by the military authorities with the view of confiscation, preliminary proceedings had been instituted to secure the condemnation of the same. He adds that the obstacles in the way of the law as it stands are so serious as to cause grave apprehensions that no satisfactory results will be attained in the prosecution of suits authorized by it.

Louisville, Jan. 15.—A dispatch from headquarters of the Army of the Cumberland, says that the army is gradually extending its line in the direction of the enemy, though no movement of importance will be made for some days. The rebels are scouting round in every direction. Squads of their army came within three miles of our lines yesterday. The wounded in the hospitals are doing well.

Cairo, Jan. 16.—An arrival from below brings the information that the army and navy forces which were denied success at Vicksburg, achieved a brilliant victory at Arkansas Post on the Arkansas river, 50 miles above its mouth. That formidable fortification with all its guns, commissary stores, ammunition and quartermaster's stores, surrendered unconditionally last Sunday after [illegible] the forces under Gen. McClernand and Commodore Porter. The victory was complete. We are yet without particulars. The number of prisoners taken is reported at from 5,000 to 7,000. Our loss was from 200 to 500.

Fort Henry, January 16.—The steamer J. H. Means, which left here last Friday loaded with commissary and quartermaster's stores for Gen. Dodge's army at Corinth, has returned and reports the rebels encamped in the vicinity of Savannah to the number of 2,500. Early on Sunday morning 1,500 men arrived at the landing from Corinth as a guard for the teams. Capt. Means fears that they were attacked and captured before a return to Corinth, as the presence of the rebels in that vicinity was entirely unexpected.

The rebels had sent for and were receiving artillery for the purpose of blockading the river. He thinks that it is only by chance that he got through safe, as the rebels were not expecting an arrival so soon and were not prepared to attack. The rebel Forrest crossed the river near Clifton, [illegible] his retreat swimming his horses and carrying his artillery across on flatboats. It is believed that no steamer will now be able to go up the river without being convoyed by gunboats.

Washington, Jan. 16.—The Secretary of the Interior has sent to Congress a letter accompanying letters from [illegible] Commissioner Dole recommending an appropriation of [illegible]

[illegible] Upper Missouri tribes.

The Surgeon General [illegible] the Army [illegible]

Chattanooga, January 11.—Other information has been received here that the Rebel [illegible] has been strengthened [illegible] the road from here to Nashville. Gen. Wheeler is in his rear and has destroyed the railroad bridge just finished at Mill Creek [illegible] miles south of Nashville. The Federals are fortifying on the south side of Murfreesboro.

St. Louis, Jan. 1[illegible].—A dispatch to Gen. [illegible] Warren, [illegible] Texas county [illegible] says that the enemy [illegible] in full retreat toward Arkansas. Marmaduke's [illegible] was in the Hartsville fight between 4,000 and 5,000 strong.

Nashville, Jan. 16.—It is reported that Gen. Longstreet has superseded Bragg.

There is no news from Murfreesboro, the telegraph being out of order.

Cincinnati, Jan. 17.—A letter from Flemingsburg, Ky., dated the 12th, says that a gentleman from Abingdon, Va., five days before reports that 50,000 Confederate troops passed through that place from Richmond to reinforce the rebel army in Tennessee. This seems to corroborate the telegraphic report from the Army of the Potomac that 75 regiments had been sent from Lee's army into Tennessee.

Washington, Jan. 17.—The friends of the Ship Canal bill are jubilant over the vote against tabling it yesterday, claiming that it indicates an absolute certainty of its passage through the House.

Secretary Stanton has written a letter to the Military Committee of the House and Senate, urging that immediate steps should be taken for the acceptance of Glass Elliot's proposition for a submarine cable from Fortress Monroe to New Orleans. The total expense of the project is placed at $2,000,000.

In the Senate, to-day, the Vice President presented a communication from the Secretary of the Interior asking an appropriation of $5,000,000 for the Capitol extension and $200,000 for a new dome.

The affair at Galveston has caused a general gloom among the members of the army and navy. Admiral Farragut had sent the Brooklyn, Scotia, and half a-dozen of his best vessels to the recapture of the Harriet Lane at all hazards, and if possible to destroy the rebel gunboats on Bayou Buffalo. Nothing had been heard from this expedition up to the time the Illinois left.

Nothing of Banks's plan had transpired and most of his troops had gone to Baton Rouge.

The statement of the Richmond papers that Gen. Pryor had repulsed our troops at New Providence is untrue.

New York, Jan. 17.—In regard to the appropriation asked by Secretary Usher for the Utah Indians, it is stated that the Indian Agents believe, unless presents are distributed to those lying between Salt Lake and Nevada, they will be liable to make trouble.

Columbus, Ohio, Jan. 17.—Ben. Wade was nominated U. S. Senator by the Republican caucus last night. He will probably be elected.

California News

San Francisco, January 12th.—The State Superintendent of Immigration to-day, commenced suits against owners of vessels who have failed to comply with the Legislative Act of May 3d, 1852, which requires a report to be made at the Superintendent's office of the number of passengers within three days after the arrival of a vessel from foreign ports. Some dozen suits in all will be instituted in the State Courts. $10,000 damages are asked in each case.

The steamship Moses Taylor will be detained until the 1st or 11th of February.

The ship Shirley brought 785 boxes shells and 12 boxes ordnance stores for Mare Island.

The ship Acon arrived to-night from Manila with sugar to the Refinery, after a very severe passage. She left Manila October 17th and encountered strong northeast monsoons through the China seas. November 16th encountered a terrific typhoon which lasted eighteen hours. Carried away lower topsails, sprung a leak, obliged to throw overboard a portion of cargo. December 22d, overtaken by a hurricane and sails blown to pieces. At one time the men became exhausted at the pumps, when the wind moderated. [illegible] sort twice of throwing cargo overboard.

Things Unconstitutional and Otherwise

When Mr Lincoln succeeded to the Presidency, the first matter for consideration was to pacify the Southern Secessionists if it could be done short of the sacrifice of the national dignity. Failing in this it was his duty to retain the forts and arsenals in the South, as strategic points and await the uprising of the people. The Secession sympathizers at the North, at this time were fearful that any attempt to reinforce the garrisons of the Southern forts would "irritate" our Southern brethren. As a matter of course the North was never expected to get irritated about anything. Insult could be heaped on the nation and the Unionists and rubbed in with sand and a scrubbing brush and they were expected to bear it all meekly. We did so, and Fort Sumpter was captured and immediately afterwards Norfolk and Harper's Ferry. It now became evident that the South proposed to occupy Washington. The President called for seventy five thousand men with no authority from Congress. These were intended for the defense of Washington, pending the settlement of existing difficulties. This expedient to save the capital of the country, was denounced as "unconstitutional." The enterprises of the Confederates became more offensive, and to save the States of Kentucky and Missouri from the hands of the enemy, it was necessary to make more extensive preparations. Besides, it was designed to defend the Unionists of East Tennessee and Western Virginia. Surely this was only a sacred duty, the execution of which should have provoked no [illegible]. This required eighty three thousand additional men. These were called for in an "unconstitutional" manner. During this time, the Confederates had collected forces on the frontiers of Kentucky and threatened the peace of that State before any blood was shed, all property of loyalists was confiscated—sixty days were given to loyalists to leave the Confederate States or take the oath of allegiance, and those who left were deprived of property, and those who refused to leave, and would not take the oath of allegiance, were imprisoned.

At this time the Confederates were threatening Washington, with an army of one hundred and twenty thousand men. To give security to the capital, it was determined to try and drive the Confederates south of James river, thus reducing them to the defensive. This advance over the Potomac was denounced as "the coercion of a sovereign State," and was of course "unconstitutional." Just before this disastrous "unconstitutional" Bull Run campaign, Gen Frost had been "unconstitutionally" captured at Camp Jackson, with fifteen hundred men, and Sterling Price had been "unconstitutionally" thrashed on the sacred soil of a sovereign State. This practice of "unconstitutional" thrashings, varied by some rather unpleasant drubbings of our forces, has been kept up ever since, with the loss to the Confederates of a large part of their territories and over a million of their population, which are now under the shadow of the old flag. In carrying out these things many "unconstitutional" things have been done, nearly any one of which having been neglected, would have proven fatal to the national cause. Among those which might have been neglected to advantage, was the arrest of a pea-nut peddler, near New Haven, and Col E. J. Kewen, of California and several other [illegible]y unimportant personages. All these [illegible] occurred from dressing village tyrants in authority, which they did not appreciate. Fortunately, we have got past that phase in the management of the war.

It is a noticeable fact that, those who have from the first been so expert at finding "unconstitutional" points in Mr Lincoln's policy have failed to see any such thing in Jeff Davis. It will be a good idea in future to let these sympathizers howl, keeping in view the fact that, what pleases them must be a disadvantage to the national cause. If Mr Lincoln will do this he may rest assured that he will find the weak spots in the enemy's armor. It looks likely that the Confederates will not be pleased with the Emancipation Proclamation. The prospect of having to shoot at their own negroes is making secession an expensive luxury. Of one thing we are quite well assured. The Unionists can stand it as long as they can. Under the civil law it is doubtless "unconstitutional" to emancipate and arm the negroes; under the military law it may be done. This being an extremely uncivil war, the civil law is to be suspended in certain localities until the Confederates are reduced to a proper degree of civility. For this purpose a little less constitutionality in dealing with rebels and a little more of it in dealing with Unionists will be acceptable.

WASCO COUNTY SCRIP.—The county orders of Wasco have been selling at low rates until recently. Now, they have advanced to seventy five cents on the dollar which we take to be an indication that there is an improvement in the management of county affairs.

A report that the will of Gen. Washington had been stolen turns out to be a fabrication.

Late Eastern News

The following is a summary of the latest and most important news received:

CHATTANOOGA (Tenn) January 11.—The Yankees have advanced their lines seven miles this side of Murfreesboro. They have been guilty of the most outrageous enormities stealing private property, robbing peaceable citizens and running off negroes.

Nashville, January 11th.—The rebel General Forrest's advance was at Franklin last night his pickets extending three miles west of that place. He is collecting horses, provisions and conscripts. Four steamers, with army stores arrived to-day.

Washington, January 12th.—The full official report of the capture of Holly Springs (Miss.) shows the ruffianism and barbarity of Van Dorn and his soldiers in anything but an enviable light. An attempt was made by them to destroy the general hospital, containing over five hundred sick. A lot of ordnance stores was piled in front of the hospital and fired before there was time to remove the sick; the walls were riddled with flying balls and shells. Twenty sick soldiers were struck by the missiles. Added to this a hundred and fifty sick were forced to rise from their beds and fall into line to be marched off by the rebels who threatened to shoot the medical officers for expostulating. Some men were so weak as to be scarcely able to stand, but were forced along under threats of being shot. The rebel officer in command finally consented to stop these brutal proceedings on receiving a certificate signed by every surgeon present that the men were too sick to walk and their removal an impossibility.

Cairo, January 12th.—A Vicksburg paper states that Banks and Farragut are coming up the river in large force; also that the rebels received large reinforcements, and that their numbers now inside of the fortifications are a hundred thousand(?). The failure of the expedition against Vicksburg is attributed to the non arrival of reinforcements at the proper time.

Kingston N C.—The Yankees are making immense preparations for an advance at Moorhead City and Newbern. They number fifty thousand men under Foster. They will probably attack Charleston, Wilmington Goldsboro, and Weldon, simultaneously. It is reported that they are now cooking marching rations.

Cape Race, January 10th.—The Jura, from Liverpool on January 1st and with Londonderry dates to the 2d, has arrived.

At a meeting of the working men of Manchester, held Dec 31st, resolutions supporting the Federal cause were adopted, and an address to President Lincoln was agreed upon. The resolutions expressed high satisfaction at the emancipation proclamation and other measures tending at once to give freedom to slaves and restore peace to America. The address to President Lincoln congratulates him on his humane and righteous policy of emancipation, and beseeches him to finish the work effectually.

ST PAUL, January 14.—Ex Governor Ramsey was elected U S Senator to-day.

Boston, January 15.—Gov. Andrew, in his address at the reception of the California cavalry company yesterday, said that he had received assurances from Washington that the tender of a whole cavalry battalion from California was accepted, and that the battalion will be counted as a part of the Massachusetts contingent.

Washington, January 15.—The Attorney General, in reply to a resolution of the House asking why the Confiscation Act had not been enforced in the District of Columbia, enclosed a letter from the District Attorney stating that in all cases of property that had been seized, reported to him, by the military authorities with the view of confiscation preliminary proceedings had been instituted to secure the condemnation of the same. He adds that the obstacles in the way of the law as it stands are so serious as to cause grave apprehensions that no satisfactory results will be attained in the prosecution of suits authorized by it.

LOUISVILLE, Jan 15.—A dispatch from headquarters of the Army of the Cumberland, says that the army is gradually extending its line in the direction of the enemy, though no movement of importance will be made for some days. The rebels are scouting round in every direction. Squads of their army came within three miles of our lines, yesterday. The wounded in the hospitals are doing well.

CAIRO, Jan 16.—An arrival from below brings the information that the army and navy forces, which were denied success at Vicksburg, achieved a brilliant victory at Arkansas Post, on the Arkansas river, 50 miles above its mouth. That formidable fortification with all its guns, commissary stores ammunition and quartermaster's stores, surrendered unconditionally last Sunday afternoon to the forces under Gen. McClernand and Commodore Porter. The victory was complete. We are yet without particulars. The number of prisoners taken is reported at from 5,000 to 7,000. Our loss was from 300 to 500.

FORT HENRY, January 16.—The steamer James Means which left here last Friday, loaded with commissary and quartermaster's stores for Gen Dodge's army at Corinth, has returned and reports the rebels encamped in the vicinity of Savannah to the number of 2,500. Early on Sunday morning 1,000 men arrived at the landing from Corinth, as a guard for the trains. Capt. Means fears that they were attacked and captured before a return to Corinth as the presence of the rebels in that vicinity was entirely unexpected.

The rebels had sent for and were receiving artillery for the purpose of blockading the river. He thinks that it is only by chance that he got through safe, as the rebels were not expecting an arrival so soon and were not prepared to attack. The rebel Forrest crossed the river near Clifton on his retreat, swimming his horses and carrying his artillery across on flatboats. It is believed that no steamer will now be able to go up the river without being convoyed by gunboats.

WASHINGTON, Jan 16.—The Secretary of the Interior has sent to Congress a letter accompanying letters from Indian Commissioner Dole recommending an appropriation of $50,000 at once for distribution among the Utah Indians based upon the fact that many of the savages are becoming [illegible] believing that the Government had lost the power and ability to protect them on the one hand and keep them in subjection on the other. He also recommends two temporary special agencies, one to the Chippewas and Utahs and the other for the Upper Missouri tribes.

WASHINGTON, Jan 16.—The Richmond Dispatch says that North Carolina papers indicate that there is manifest uneasiness not for Wilmington and the country east of Raleigh but for the capital itself. The Richmond Examiner says that the theatre of war on a large scale is to be transferred to North Carolina.

The Surgeon General states that the sanitary condition of the Army of the Potomac is good.

NEW YORK, Jan 16.—A correspondent of the Times, writing from the Army of the Potomac, says that the rebels were evidently anticipating an attack last night and threw up rifle pits extending over a half a mile of ground. The pits are nearly [illegible] the mouth and on the right of our position. The [illegible] show that the army is liable to receive marching orders any moment. A movement must and will take place [illegible] the expiration of many days.

INDIANAPOLIS, Jan 16.—Resolutions were introduced into the House yesterday declaring that the admission of Western Virginia is unconstitutional, favoring a National Convention of all the States, and armistice during that period and pledging Indiana to refuse to pay taxes for compensated emancipation. Referred to the Committee on Federal Relations.

CHICAGO, January 16.—Richmond papers received at the headquarters of the Army of the Potomac contain the following:

CHATTANOOGA, January 14.—Official information has been received here that Rosecrans has been strongly reinforced and is repairing the road from here to Nashville. Gen. Wheeler is in his rear and has destroyed the railroad bridge just finished at Mill Creek nine miles south of Nashville. The Federals are 10 miles on this side of Murfreesboro.

ST LOUIS, Jan 17.—A dispatch from Gen. Warren dated Houston, Texas county, 16th inst., says that the enemy are in full retreat toward Arkansas. Marmaduke's rebel force was in the Hartsville fight, between 4,000 and 5,000 strong.

NASHVILLE, Jan. 16.—It is reported that Gen. Longstreet has superseded Bragg.

There is no news from Murfreesboro—the telegraph being out of order.

CINCINNATI, Jan. 17.—A letter from Flemingsburg, Ky., dated the 12th, says that a gentleman from Abington, Va., five days before, reports that 50,000 Confederate troops passed through that place from Richmond to reinforce the rebel army in Tennessee. This seems to corroborate the telegraphic report from the Army of the Potomac, that 30 regiments had been sent from Lee's army into Tennessee.

WASHINGTON, Jan 17.—The friends of the Ship Canal bill are jubilant over the vote against tabling it yesterday, claiming that it indicates an absolute certainty of its passage through the House.

Secretary Stanton has written a letter to the Military Committees of the House and Senate, urging that immediate steps should be taken for the acceptance of Glass, Elliot & Co.'s proposition for a submarine cable [from Fortress Monroe to New Orleans]. The total expense of the project is placed at $2,500,000.

In the Senate, to-day, the Vice-President presented a communication from the Secretary of the Interior, asking an appropriation of $5,000,000 for the Capitol extension, and $200,000 for a new dome.

The affair at Galveston has caused a general gloom among the members of the army and navy. Admiral Farragut had sent the Brooklyn, Scotia, and half-a-dozen of his best vessels to the recapture of the Harriet Lane at all hazards, and, if possible, to destroy the rebel gunboats on Bayou Buffalo. Nothing had been heard from this expedition up to the time the Illinois left.

Nothing of Banks's plan had transpired, and most of his troops had gone to Baton Rouge.

The statement of the Richmond papers, that Gen Pryor had repulsed our troops at New Providence, is untrue.

NEW YORK, Jan 17.—In regard to the appropriation asked by Secretary Usher for the Utah Indians, it is stated that the Indian Agents believe, unless presents are distributed to those lying between Salt Lake and Nevada, they will be liable to make trouble.

COLUMBUS, Ohio, Jan 17.—Ben Wade was nominated U S Senator by the Republican caucus last night. He will probably be elected.

California News.

San Francisco, January 12th.—The State Superintendent of Immigration, to-day, commenced suits against owners of vessels who have failed to comply with the Legislative Act of May 3d, 1852, which requires a report to be made at the Superintendent's office of the number of passengers within three days after the arrival of a vessel from foreign ports. Some dozen suits in all will be instituted in the State Courts. $10,000 damages are asked in each case.

The steamship Moses Taylor will be detained until the 1st or 11th of February.

The ship Shirley brought 785 boxes shells and 12 boxes ordnance stores for Mare Island.

The ship Avon arrived to-night, from Manila, with sugar to the Refinery after a very severe passage. She left Manila October 17th, and encountered strong northeast monsoons through the China seas. November 16th, encountered a terrific typhoon, which lasted eighteen hours. Carried away lower topsails, sprung a leak, obliged to throw over a portion of cargo. December 22d, overtaken by a hurricane, and sails blown to pieces. At one time the men became exhausted at the pumps, when the wind moderated. They had to resort twice to throwing cargo overboard.

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan 17.—Private dispatches received to-day in this city, and dated last night at New York, say that gold opened yesterday on the New York stock exchange at 48¼, ran down to 45 and closed at 46@46¼. The market was very unsettled, owing to the cloud resting on Government securities.

The MORNING OREGONIAN has a larger SUBSCRIPTION LIST than any other Daily published in this City.

Legal Tender Notes this Day—65 cents.

LEGAL TENDER NOTES.—The San Francisco quotations of Legal Tender Notes were, 66c bid and 68c asked, on the 17th of January. It must be understood that this is the actual measure of value by parties having gold to invest in them as a matter of speculation They were not going freely in business transactions at 68c, and we feel justified in quoting them at 65c for this market It is likely that there will be no further issue of this currency, as we are acquainted with the fact that the Government proposes to issue interest bearing notes to absorb the Legal Tender Notes, and if it is done the new paper will remain nearly or quite up to par.

FALLEN THROUGH.—The mill which was proposed between the light-weights, Mr James Kelly, alias "The Spider," and Mr John Shepard has fallen through by Mr. Shepard failing to put in his appearance. This untoward event will deprive the fancy of an anticipated pleasure We congratulate the two champions on their escape from the perils of the fistic ring, and on the fact that, their respective corporeal substances are yet unbruised by their mauleys If they have a desire to keep comfortable, and enjoy life, they will avoid the uncertain fortunes and honors derived from giving each other a mutual bruising.

POSTAGE STAMPS WANTED.—If some of our subscribers who are owing us will remit in three and one cent postage stamps we will be much obliged to them. We don't care how many you send, nor how soon. The supply at this post office has entirely failed.

APPOINTMENT.—John Durrah, of Wasco county, has been appointed a captain in the Oregon Cavalry Volunteers, by Governor Gibbs, and will open a recruiting office in Dalles.

SAILS THIS EVENING.—The steamer Pacific sails to-night, at 9 o'clock.

INCREASE OF WEALTH.—The Victoria papers estimate the actual gain in property values in the North-west Colonies at $5,000,000 during the last year. The total laboring population is less than 15,000. The balance of trade for the year 1862 is $2,500,000 against the Colonies. That is: they have gone in debt to that amount, and reckon their profit in the increase of property-values.

STRIKE.—The Mountaineer says that the carpenters employed at Celilo, recently struck, and refused to take greenbacks at par. The matter was arranged at once, and the workmen soon returned to their duties.

The Lewiston Age says that, "Cherokee Bob" and Willoughby have paid the debt of [illegible]. Nineteen bullets were fired into their bodies; which we take to be a very unnatural way of ending their natural lives.

"When doctors disagree, who shall decide;" when physicians disagree, the patient is in danger of being killed by an aggravation of his natural malady.

We cannot imagine why some people persist in purchasing cheap slop clothing. They never look decent, and at the end of the year, have spent twice as much money as the well dressed gentlemen. Heuston, Hastings & Co., of Lick House, Montgomery street, corner of Sutter, San Francisco, are just the men to fit you out to your own profit and admira-

All other houses that take goods on storage are wooden buildings and in exposed parts of the town, liable to the risk of fire. The subscriber assures his patrons that his charges are but $1 50 per ton per month storage and although [illegible] in wooden buildings is $1 00 per ton, yet the public [illegible] fail to perceive the advantages the subscriber possesses over other warehouses of this place.

Coughs.—The sudden changes of our climate are sources of PULMONARY, BRONCHIAL and ASTHMATIC AFFECTIONS. Experience having proved that simple remedies often act speedily and certainly when taken in the early stages of the disease, recourse should at once be had to "Brown's Bronchial Troches," or Lozenges, let the Cold, Cough, or Irritation of the Throat be ever so slight, as by this precaution a more serious attack may be effectually warded off. PUBLIC SPEAKERS and SINGERS will find them effectual for clearing and strengthening the voice See advertisement. dec16d&w1m

This medicine has been used in private practice for many years with great success. Indeed, in no instance has it failed to effect a speedy cure, in Ague especially, one bottle having been found sufficient in most cases and in none are more than two bottles required.

A great number of testimonials could be given to verify these statements, but the proprietor prefers relying upon the merits of the medicine alone A cure is guaranteed in nine cases out of ten.

Prepared only by ROBERT WHITE, Chemist and Druggist, Main street, Placerville, and Broadway Upper Placerville. For sale by all respectable Druggists throughout the State.

[illegible] Dr Van Zandt with his new method of exciting the Electro-Galvanic current together with his remedial agents which are adapted to the necessities of California, will assure you of a complete and radical recovery of all bodily and mental infirmities, and will restore you to usefulness and spare you a blessing to your family and society.

All the world over wherever disease exists, whether special [illegible] the cell and climate of [illegible] acute or chronic, contagious or [illegible] it is necessary to restore the ELECTRO-GALVANIC equilibrium, especially in California, as it is to give food to the starving. This statement is based upon a series of facts extending through many years, and verified by hundreds of patients; so that no principle of science no rule of experience no result of any well known cause depends upon more sure and unassailable foundations than those which underlie the world-wide reputation of Electricity for the cure of all nervous states of the body, faulty digestion, mental and physical debility, or prostration, coughs, asthma, wandering pains of a rheumatic [illegible] of uric acid character, and all forms of disease [illegible] of scrofula or cosmetic habit of body.

None Need Despair of Relief.

If you have ulcers which will not heal—pains that can not be removed—melancholy which you cannot shake off—loss of power which you cannot regain—depression of spirits which weigh you down—wakefulness that knows no sleeping—laziness that languishes for want of energy—a void which no society can fill—suspicion which no assurance can allay—go to Dr Van Zandt, for his great success and the safety with which he administers his new method of electrical excitation, together with his remedies, which are adapted to the requirements of climate and constitution will assure you of a complete and radical removal of all bodily and mental infirmities, within the scope of science and [illegible] to remove

The Eye and Ear Diseases.

It must not be forgotten by the eye and ear sufferers that Dr Van Zandt has made these afflictions an especial study and that he is the only Surgeon in our State who has a diploma for that branch of practice. Very many of the eye and ear troubles are purely deranged nervous action, and are cured by his electro-galvanic battery—as amaurosis, squinting, cataract, floating specks before the vision, twitching of the eyelids, nervous deafness, roaring and buzzing noises in the ears, giddiness, etc. All operations successfully done on those delicate organs of sense.

THE BEE AND THE WASP

A wasp met a bee that was just buzzing by,
And he said, "Little cousin, can you tell me why
You are loved so much better by people than I?

My back shines as bright and as yellow as gold,
And my shape is most elegant, too, to behold;
Yet nobody likes me for that, I am told."

"Ah, cousin," the bee said, "'tis all very true;
But if I had half as much mischief to do,
Indeed they would love me no better than you.

You have a fine shape and a delicate wing;
They own you are handsome; but then there's one thing
They cannot put up with, and that is your sting.

My coat is quite homely and plain, as you see,
Yet nobody ever is angry with me,
Because I'm a humble and innocent bee."

From this little story let people beware,
Because, like the wasp, if ill-natured they are,
They will never be loved, if they're ever so fair.

LONG TOM AND SOAP CREEK ON THE RAMPAGE.—The State Republican of the 17th inst contains an account of the manner in which the gentlemen of the Long Tom, Soap Creek, Cayote and Luckiamute conduct themselves while on the rampage. It is quite clear that the inhabitants of these noted localities are spoiling for a fight which they may get before they are thinking of it. We copy the following:

A gang of "Rickenstick bar hunters from Long Tom, Soap Creek and Cayote, have been in the habit of coming to town every Saturday for some time, for the purpose of swearing allegiance to Jeff Davis and disposing of a few gallons of "Jersey lightning." Last Saturday, while on their regular visit, the old tiee of the band, an old thing with a head about the size and shape of a large Dutch squash, stuck on the shoulders of a hideous looking carcass, with the flat end up, and hair as coarse as rye straws, all bristling on end, like porcupine quills, concluded that he must "begin the war." So he cornered a boy on the side walk, informed him that he was an "abolitionist," and that every man who supports the President of the United States is a thief. A numerous body guard of "wattock barks" surrounded the hero to prevent him from getting hurt, and after he had vented his wrath on the terrified "abolitionist" and on the "gang of thieves" that support Lincoln, he wound up by hoping that the "war would soon begin so he could get to kill an abolitionists." Another chap, who furnishes the fiery water which makes them so brave, is reported to have said that he was in favor of commencing the war on the abolitionists soon so he wouldn't have to pay any Federal license. A few others, who are out of money and have no property, are probably in favor of the same thing, as they would rather steal and plunder than work. We hope the Egyptians will postpone the "war" until summer, as the valley of the Long Thomas river is not adapted to the manoeuvering of large armies at this season of the year, except in canoes, which would be a very inconvenient mode of going to war, besides they might take cold by slashing around in the midst of a winter campaign. However, it would not be strange if the great and powerful States of Long Tom, Soap Creek and Cayote, should secede immediately, and join the "Confederacy" or set up an independent kingdom. If they should go out, the United States of America will cease to exist, for the few hundred thousand "abolitionists" that the Government could send against these powerful bar fighters, would not be a mouthful for them. Abolitionists would be compelled to flee to the mountains, and Cayuse horses would be cheap on the borders of that kingdom.

Tearless Eyes.

"God shall wipe away all tears from their eyes." The expression is one of exquisite tenderness and beauty. The poet Burns said he could never read this without being affected to weeping. Of all the negative descriptions of heaven, there is no one perhaps that would be better adapted to produce consolation than this. This is a world of weeping—a vale of tears. Who is there of the human family that has not shed a tear? And what a change it would make in our world, if it could be said that henceforward not another tear would be shed, not a head would ever be bowed down again in grief! Yet this is to be the condition of heaven. In that world there is to be no pain, no disappointment, no bereavement. No friend is to lie in dreadful agony on a sick bed; no grave is to be opened to receive a parent, a wife, a child; no gloomy prospect of death is to draw tears of sorrow from the eyes. To that blessed world, when our eyes run down with tears, we are permitted to look forward; and the prospect of such a world should contribute to wipe away our tears here, for all our sorrows will soon be over. Amidst the trials of the present life, when friends leave us, when sickness comes, when hopes are blasted, when calumnies and reproaches come upon us, when—standing on the verge of the grave and looking down into the cold tomb—the eyes pour forth floods of tears, it is a blessed privilege to be permitted to look forward to that brighter scene in heaven, where not a pang shall ever be felt, and not a tear shall ever be shed.—Dr Barnes.

EARLY MARRIAGES.—She stood at the alter when she was but sixteen. She was in love; her destiny rested on a creature as delicate as herself. She looked lovely as she pronounced the vow. Think of a bride with auburn hair, bright eyes, and pouting lips, only sixteen years old.

She stood at the washtub when her twenty-fifth birthday arrived. The hair, the lips, the eyes, were not calculated to excite the heart. Five cross young ones were about the house crying—some breaking things, and one urging the necessity of an immediate supply of the lacteal secretion. She stopped in despair and sat down, and tears trickled down her once plump and ruddy cheek. Alas! Nancy, early marriages are not the dodge. Better enjoy youth at home, and hold lovers at a proper distance until you have the muscle, limb and heart enough to face a frowning world and family. If a chap really cares for you, he can wait for two or three years, make presents, take you to concerts and so on until the time comes. Early marriages and early cabbages are tender productions.

STATISTICS OF THE JESUIT.—From a book lately published in Austria, it appears that there are at present 7,[illegible] Jesuits. Of these there are 349 in Austria, 2[illegible] in England, 1,542 in Belgium, 2,20[illegible] in France, 1[illegible] in Italia, 561 in Germany, 126 in Zealand, 742 in Spain, 240 in Maryland, U. S., 19 in Mexico, 493 in Missouri, 206 in the kingdom of Naples, 201 in Holland, 27[illegible] in the province of Turin, and 226 in that of Venice. There is not one in Russia.

SHOOTING THEIR OWN PROPERTY.—The [illegible] of arming the negroes has one feature [illegible] [illegible] in favor.—It is contained in the [illegible]

A writer telling how well the 1st South Carolina regiment behaved when under fire says: The force [illegible] us in this and on the former occasion were two [illegible] of the Eighth [illegible] mounted rifles commanded by Captains [illegible] and Bradford. [illegible] were well armed with pistols and [illegible] They say the [illegible] fought like all [illegible] and to use the words of our captives, "they think it is just the meanest thing the Yankees have done yet to oblige them to shoot their own property, and thus suffer a loss [illegible] for every darkey they kill in defending themselves."

FOR PEACE DEMOCRATS.—The following sentiment from a late speech indicates that even the heathen of old Rome were far in advance of the Peace Democrats of the present day in love of country and all the elements of enlightened civilization. They had no patience with demagogues who prated about devotion to parchments, when the very existence of the republic was at stake.

When a Roman Consul to save his country from an alarming conspiracy, once overstepped the powers conferred on him by the laws, a captious tribune—perhaps either an ex-Judge or a law professor—hoping to embarrass, exclaimed, "Swear that you have respected the laws." "I swear," replied the Consul, "I swear that I have saved the republic."

A WASH FOR THE HAIR.—Six cents worth of borax, put in a quart of warm water; when perfectly dissolved, wash your hair with it, and afterward rinse it in warm water.

The official canvass of the vote of Iowa soldiers foots up as follows: Republican, 14,874, Democratic, 4,115. Republican majority, 10,759.

Proclamation by the Governor

EXECUTIVE OFFICE, PORTLAND, OREGON, January [illegible] 186[illegible]

By the President of the United States, through Brigadier General George Wright, commanding the Department of the Pacific, and Brigadier General Benjamin Alvord commanding the District of Oregon, I have been requested to raise six additional companies required to complete the 1st Regiment of Cavalry Oregon Volunteers. They will be needed the coming Spring to protect the frontiers of this State and Washington Territory, and for an expedition against the Snake Indians who have so long been mercilessly engaged in robbing emigrants and murdering our fellow citizens. I am confident that the citizens of Oregon, who have always promptly responded to any demand for their military services, will in like manner respond to this call, thereby showing their loyalty to the Government and their [illegible] in chastising the murdering bands of Indians which infest our frontiers.

The enlisted men when mounted will be supplied with horses by the United States, it being understood that they will be mounted [illegible] as shall be [illegible] by the Government.

Propositions to raise a whole company which will furnish their own horses and horse equipments, may be entertained. The men in such cases [illegible] 40 cents a day for the use and risk of their horses and horse equipments.

Each company will consist of one hundred enlisted men, and when mustered into the service of the United States to serve for three years, unless sooner discharged.

Recruiting offices will be immediately opened at Portland, Dalles City, and perhaps at other places. By the Governor,
